

Hokkaido University Faculty/School of Humanities and Human Sciences Application Guidelines for Research Students in 2027
(International Students)

1. Admission Requirements and Enrollment Periods

To be admitted as a research student to the Faculty (or School) of Humanities and Human Sciences at Hokkaido University, applicants must hold a bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree, or be expected to receive one.

Students will enroll in either April or October.

2. Application Methods

To be admitted as a research student, the following three application steps must be completed: A. Pre-inquiry (by the Pre-Admission Support System : PSS) → B. Online application (examination fee payment) → C. Submission of application documents (by post).

When applying for admission, applicants must have 1 (one) academic member of the Faculty of Humanities and Human Sciences as a prospective supervisor. For information about academic faculty members, see the website of the Faculty/Graduate School/School of Humanities and Human Sciences below.

Faculty list: <https://www.let.hokudai.ac.jp/en/research/staff-f>

Note: For information about academic faculty members who will not be available to accept students in the academic year 2027, see the list titled Academic Members of the Faculty of Humanities and Human Sciences on page 8 of this application guidelines.

The application to obtain informal consent from prospective supervisor is made through the Hokkaido University Pre-Admission Support System, so do not contact your prospective supervisor directly.

The Pre-Admission Support System is an online system for applying for informal acceptance. Please visit the PSS website for more details.
